Worker Spotlight

Come by the Rancho Works Café and meet Jose. Jose is a hard worker who displays his energy and enthusiasm while quickly moving around the café to serve customers. Although Jose thought he never wanted to work in fast food, he says that he knew it was a step to reach his goal. "I chose to do something, rather than nothing." He says he has learned "how to deal with customers, how to clean, and how to cashier". Jose also been able to effectively train new workers. Jose demonstrates that he has the work habits, skills, and confidence to help him transition to work in the community.
